

Presents in celebration of the 130th year of the family moving into the mansion

A River Palace on Dry Land

An engaging talk by Christina Pfau

Where: The Carriage House at the Howard Steamboat Museum

When Wednesday the 8th of May at 7:00pm

This fascinating talk will detail and explain the style and construction of the Howard family mansion. This 22-room mansion was constructed in 1894 by the Howard Shipyard workers for Jeffersonville's famous steamboat building family.

$5.00 suggested donation to attend